

The Property

Luxury villa in the unspoiled mountains of San Miguel, a few minutes drive to Santa Gertrudis and Ibiza town with its many restaurants and bars.

There are beautiful stone floors, teak doors processed, a traditional style that makes the entire property an unforgettable villa, heating, indescribable beautiful pools, private terraces make this property so unique. The villa was elaborately and carefully restored, with much emphasis placed on the detail.

It offers next to the main house, four separate guest accommodations, a beautiful Mediterranean-tropical garden with many chill out facilities, two solar heated pools, terraces to relax.

All nine suites have their own entrance and five can be reached through the main house. This luxury mobile home is ready for occupancy and is suitable as a holiday home and as permanent residence for whole year.
